Kappa Mu Lambda becomes Epsilon Omega chapter of national honorary, social group

Kappa Mu Lambda, local music fraternity, became a national member of Phi Mu Alpha (Sinfonia) Sunday at the university. The Omaha U group is the Epsilon Omega chapter of the national honorary professional and social fraternity.

Fifteen students and two instructors were activated into the new group. Dr. Robert W. Feister and Martin W. Bush were initiated as sponsor and patron respectively. Richard E. Duncan, instructor of music at the university, already holds membership with the national group, and was a patron of Kappa Mu Lambda.

The Upsilon chapter from the University of Nebraska was the installing committee. Dr. Emanuel Wisnow, sponsor of the Lincoln chapter, and new conductor of the Omaha Symphony Orchestra, attended the installation. Carlton A. Chaffee, province governor of Phi Mu Alpha, also was a guest.

Luncheon

A luncheon followed the initiation ceremony in the faculty clubroom. Included on the program was a violin solo by Bill Fitzsimmons.

Phi Mu Alpha was organized on October 6, 1898 at the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, Massachusetts. The group was set up to further the cause of good music in America. Currently there are 119 chapters. The organization holds national conventions biennially as well as province conventions.

Local history

Kappa Mu Lambda was organized at the University of Omaha in 1936. The local group was inactive during the war years, but was reactivated soon after the war.

Group's events

The new group will meet next Thursday evening to honor Richard E. Duncan, who is leaving the University of Omaha to do graduate work at the Eastman School of Music.

Other events on the calendar include a party with the Nebraska Upsilon chapter in June.

Although the students bettered their positions in the results, they collected less money than last year when the total was $1,126.22.

More than 175 students from 10 social fraternities, ISA, APO and Delta Sigma Pi volunteered to work collecting contributions from homes during the hour-long drive.

Don't throw away your second semester activity tickets. You'll still need the pink cards to claim your 1950-1951 Tomahawk.

The yearbook will not be ready for distribution until sometime after graduation.

"Delivery date is delayed because they are being bound in St. Louis," says Jean McDonald, editor of the Tomahawk.

Students who plan to attend summer school will be able to pick up the annuals in the ticket office. Other regular students will be notified by mail when the Tomahawk is ready for distribution in the bookstore.

Students who plan to leave Omaha after this semester are urged to leave their forwarding addresses in the Tomahawk Business Office. Their books will be sent out C.O.D.

IT'S THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO Jo Larkin...

Well, what a day to have the Gateway come out! Everybody is studying for exams, sleeping and what have ya'. Well, to anyone who gets the paper today this is the last time, for the Gospel.

I apologize to the people I have scandalized in the column. Dogs, Ma-ie Day floats, letter writers, the deans and faculty. I may be in one of your classes next year. Who knows? And as to the jokes. At least the groundwork is laid for some better ones, as an avid reader told me "to get some spice and life into the old rag."

Speaking of spice Roger Orr told me a saying that he made up one day while soaking up the sun, the plural of moose is mice, the plural of spouse is spice ... unquote.

Don Blocker can take over Sammy Kaye's band anyway now. In the regular feature of Kayes program, "so you want to lead a band," Don stepped on to the stage at the Coliseum Monday night, waved the stick and won 25 dollars, an album of Sammy Kaye records and a phonograph! Call him Maestro Blocker from here on out.

Remember way back in the April Fool issue when there was an April Fool story about the Tomahawk coming out about the middle of July. Well, Happy April Fool's Day, only this time it "ain't". Its due out "some-time" after graduation.

It seems that our yearbooks are being bound in another town.

Congratulations to Ben Tobias who was elected temporary chairman of the Student Council. Gad, another year! No joke though, that's a real honor.

This week's been pretty dull. No day's off, no dances in the auditorium and no free coffee and donuts. But think how dull it will be next week. I'm gonna miss the old school, but unlike Dick Clark, the lucky dog, I'll be back. It's rumored that Clark and Dick Keim may go down to Texas for their master's. "I like the wide open spaces ...

So long, it's been . . .

As usual, this is the time for a series of happy memories, a few regrets, and many fond farewells. The Gateway staff believes it has its share of all three.

Our happy thoughts center around the compliments we've had on good issues, the nights we've worked till 9 p.m. with laughs to lighten the work, the times we've been sure there would never be enough copy only to have a big story come in at the last minute, the days that both students and faculty have popped in the door to ask, "Is The Gateway out yet?"

We're sorry for the errors that slipped by us, for the stories we've had to leave out for the lack of space, for hurt feelings if there have been any, for the additional gray hairs we've given the Deans.

And we send fond farewells to the 276 seniors who won't decorate the halls next year, to those faculty members who won't decorate the classrooms, and to the students who may be decorated by Uncle Sam's uniform.

We send these plus thank you's to the many people who have given us the news, and especially to those who have seen to it that The Gateway got it first.

Now for the twenty-fourth time this semester The Gateway goes to bed. And this time the staff with it. Hope you've liked the paper. We've liked putting it out.

Baseball squad ends season with two stadium contests

by Dick Kimball

Tonight and tomorrow nights the Omaha U baseball team will play its last home games in the Municipal Stadium. They will play host to Iowa Teachers.

Earlier this season, the Tutors humbled the Indians 2-1 and 7-5 in games on the Iowa diamond. The Indians played well, but lost both games on the strength of one bad inning in each.

If the squad can win both of these last games, they will close the year with a six win, three loss record for the regular season. Two other games ended in losses, but they were in pre-season play. Even counting these first two games, two weekend games will bring a six-five record.

Included in this record are innumerable rainouts. Nearly a dozen games were called off, not counting several re-scheduled contests.

Following the 7-2 and 14-8 losses to Arkansas, and ignoring rainouts, the Indians first lost to Wichita. In this game the foes counted two runs in each of the ninth and tenth innings to win 4-2.

First Victory

Then the Omahans took on the Iowa Teachers for a pair of contests, and lost both. Then the team finally began to hit its stride, and the weather permitted some games. Win number one came at the expense of Morningside, which bowed 9-2.

The latter part of the season, the team won as consistently as they had lost the first part. The road trip ended in two wins and one tie. The Indians spilled Morningside again, this time by 14-0. Then, still in uniform, they traveled 160 miles for a night game with South Dakota State.

The Sodaks bowed that night 4-1, but the next night, the hometowners managed a 4-4 tie in 12 innings. The game for Omaha, Tuesday night, ended with the Indians dumping Simpson, 11-4.

Breyfogle leads

Of the eight Indians who were batting over .250 as of Wednesday, Newell Breyfogle led the parade with a .400 mark. Close behind was Larry Micheels with .381, but had played in more games. Bill Duffack followed with .360, followed by Andy Marinkovich's .343.

Cardwell lauds track workers

"A very satisfactory season."

In these words, coach Lloyd Cardwell summed up the 1951 track season.

Considering the fact that the cindersmen had no chance to work outdoors except in actual meets, the OU trackmen came through the season in very good fashion.

The fact that Joe Nalty finished the season with the most individual points is a surprise to no one. The speedy dash man led his mates in scoring by racking up 64 points.

Dick Christie took second place in individual scoring, as he accounted for 48 points. Christie was the workhorse of the squad, doubling in the discus and shot, and occasionally picking up points in the broad jump and javelin.

Another field man, Charlie Anderson, captured third place with 38 points. Anderson also doubled in the shot put and the discus.

Bernie Anderson finished fourth in the individual race with 29 markers. Bernie was also a two event man, as he ran both the mile and the two mile.

Lorelle Alford rounded out the top five scorers with 20 counters. Alford was a handy man on the squad, but picked up most of his points in the pole vault.

ISA spills Theta's in softball contest

ISA beat Theta Phi Delta in the semi-finals of the 'mural softball tournament. Winner of the Blackhawks vs. Delta Sigma Pi or Sigma Phi Epsilon game will meet ISA in the finals this afternoon.

Theta Phi Delta beat Theta Chi and advanced to the interfraternity finals against the winner of the Sigma Phi Epsilon-Phi Epsilon Pi game.

Semi-final pairings in the golf tournament have been announced. Bob Moscrey, ISA, will play Art Bodette, also of ISA. In the other bracket, Burt McMillan, Sigma Phi Epsilon, will meet Bob Smith, ISA.

Football practices begin next August

Football Coach Lloyd Cardwell announced that the football team for next fall will start practice during the last week of August.

Cardwell says that anyone interested in trying out for the team should see him to talk over plans for the fall.

Cardwell will round out a team time for a road game Sept. 22. All boys are invited to try out for the 1951 grid team.

These were only the top five scorers in individual scoring, and there were nine other boys who captured points to round out the team's scoring.

Aside from these five boys, four others earned their letters. They are Bob Grau, Dick Letner, Doug Alford and Jack Peterson, all of whom will return next year along with Nalty.

Indians come back to mangle Simpson, 11-4

After practically handing Simpson College three runs in the first inning, Omaha U baseballers came back strong to rip the Redmen, 11-4, Tuesday night at the Stadium.

It was the Indian's fourth consecutive win and their first home conquest. In the only other game, Wichita copped a ten-inning thriller, 4-2.

Simpson combined four OU errors and one hit to tally their three runs in the first frame to put the Red and Black in the hole.

It took the Indians three innings before they got back into the ball game with a pair of runs. Simpson's hurler Warren Overmyer was touched for a single by Bill Duffack and gave up walks to Larry Micheels and "Bugs" Redden. Don Claussen followed with a smash through the shortstop's legs to account for both markers.

The game was tied in the fourth when "Buddy" Harrison lived on a fielder's choice and took second when John Potts was caught in a rundown. Harrison then stole third and came home on a bad peg to third.

In the sixth frame, Potts and Don Maseman singled. Harrison rifled one to the third baseman who apparently had Potts trapped off third. Instead of making the play on the OU centerfielder he threw to first to beat Harrison as Potts slid across the plate with the tie-breaking run.

The Indians added four insurance runs in the seventh and three more in the eighth to put the game on ice.
